Position Applied for

You are applying for a job which is exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that we will conduct a criminal record check on the successful applicant through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). You must disclose any pending criminal proceedings, cautions or convictions against you (spent and unspent).

If the role you are applying for involves working with children or adults in a regulated activity, the law requires that you must also inform us if you have been barred from such employment.

If you do not disclose now something that is revealed by the DBS check we may withdraw any conditional offer we have made (or dismiss you if you have begun employment) and we may report you to the DBS.

We will treat this information you provide to us confidentially and it will not be used unfairly against you. Nothing you declare here will automatically prevent you from being appointed (unless required by law). We may wish to discuss it with you if you are invited to interview. Any information revealed through the DBS check will also be discussed with you. Selwyn College has a code of practice relating to the handling and storage of DBS information. A copy is available on request.
