TUTORIAL ADMINISTRATOR: FURTHER PARTICULARS

About Selwyn College

Founded in 1882 in memory of George Augustus Selwyn, Bishop successively of New Zealand and Lichfield, Selwyn College is a college of the University of Cambridge, situated in West Cambridge, ten minutes’ walk from the City centre. Since its foundation over 125 years ago, the College has grown considerably and has broadened in scope.

There are currently approximately 60 Fellows on the Governing Body of the College; the majority of whom are teaching Fellows covering a wide range of disciplines. There are approximately 350 undergraduates and approximately 200 graduate students. Out of term student accommodation is offered to conference guests. The College has a reputation as a friendly college, and has a committed and friendly body of approximately 120 non-academic staff. Further information about Selwyn College can be found at http://www.sel.cam.ac.uk

The Tutorial Office

The Tutorial Office team consists of three full-time and one part-time members of staff, who provide support to the Senior Tutor, Tutors, and Directors of Studies in servicing the needs of the undergraduate and graduate members of the College.

The Admissions Officer supports the Admissions Tutors in the recruitment and then processing all undergraduate applications.

The Schools Liaison Officer works closely with the Admissions Tutors, arranging school visits in College, and visiting many schools around the country, to raise the profile of Selwyn College and the University with suitably qualified students.
