

Selwyn College

Music Society

Michaelmas Term 2021

Admission Free

Face coverings are preferred in the hall and the auditorium, and are requested in the chapel.

Sunday 10th October – Freshers’ Squash

Members of the Choir will perform a few pieces to get us started before we invite Freshers to play through some fun music. Refreshments provided.

Hall 8:30pm

Sunday 17th October – Freshers’ Concert

We invite Freshers to perform as a soloist or in a group. Accompanists are available. Contact the committee to sign up!

Hall 8:30pm

Sunday 24th October – “Just Me and the Geese” unplugged

Cambridge pop band “Just me and the Geese” perform an acoustic set of originals and covers.

Auditorium 8:30pm

Monday 1st November – JTN Jazz Trio in the Bar

Cambridge jazz trio perform a range of jazz standards and originals ranging from smooth vocal ballads to energetic using bass, drum kit, piano and vocals covering smooth jazz to energetic modern jazz.

Bar 8:30pm

Tuesday 2nd November – Duruflé Requiem

The choir of Selwyn College Cambridge present the Duruflé Requiem for All Souls’ Day under the direction of Sarah MacDonald, accompanied by Adam Field.

Chapel 9pm

Sunday 7th November – Romantic String Sextets

String Sextet of Selwyn students will perform Strauss’ Sextet from Capriccio and Brahms’ String Sextet No. 2 in G major.

Hall 8:30pm

Sunday 21st November – Oboe and Cor Anglais Recital

Emily Bretz will perform a series of works accompanied by Alex Trigg.

Hall 8:30pm

Sunday 28th November – Christmas Concert

Selwyn instrumentalists and singers come together to perform classics of the season for our final concert of term.

Chapel 8:30pm