ANTHEM Blessed city, heavenly Salem

music: Edward Bairstow (1874-1946) words: Latin, seventh century; trans. John Mason Neale, 1851

Blessed city, heavenly Salem, vision dear of peace and love, who of living stones art builded in the height of heaven above, and, by angel hands apparelled,
as a bride dost earthward move;

Out of heav'n from God descending,
New and ready to be wed to thy Lord, whose love espoused thee, fair adorned, shalt thou be led;
all thy gates and all thy bulwarks of pure gold are fashioned.

Bright thy gates of pearl are shining;
they are open evermore;
and their well-earned rest attaining thither faithful souls do soar, who for Christ's dear Name in this world pain and tribulation bore.

Many a blow and biting sculpture polished well those stones elect, in their places now compacted
by the heavenly Architect, Never more to leave the Temple which with them their Lord hath decked.

To this Temple where we call thee,
Come, O Lord of hosts, today;
With thy wonted loving kindness
Hear thy servants as they pray;
And thy fullest benediction, shed within its walls alway.
