INTROIT The Lord my pasture shall prepare

Music: Paul Ayres

Words: Psalm 23, versified by Joseph Addison (1672-1719)

The Lord my pasture shall prepare,
and feed me with a shepherd's care;
his presence shall my wants supply,
and guard me with a watchful eye;
my noonday walks he shall attend,
and all my midnight hours defend.

When in the sultry glebe I faint,
or on the thirsty mountain pant,
to fertile vales and dewy meads
my weary wandering steps he leads,
where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
amid the verdant landscape flow.

Though in a bare and rugged way
through devious lonely wilds I stray,
thy bounty shall my pains beguile;
the barren wilderness shall smile
with sudden greens and herbage crowned,
and streams shall murmur all around.

Though in the paths of death I tread,
with gloomy horrors overspread,
my steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
for thou, O Lord, art with me still:
thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
and guide me through the dreadful shade.

EVENING PSALM 23

VIII.i

- 1 The LORD is my shep-herd :
therefore can I lack no-thing.
- 2 He shall feed me in a green pas-ture :
and lead me forth beside the wat-ers of com-fort.
- 3 He shall convert my soul (---) :

and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

- 4 Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
I will fear no e-vil :
for thou art with me, * thy rod and thy stäff com-fort^me.
- 5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble^me :
thou hast anointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full.
- 6 But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life (---) :
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ev-er.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son (---) :
and to the Ho-ly^Ghost;

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be :
world with-out end A-men.

ANTHEM Done is a battle

music: Bryan Kelly (b. 1934)

words: William Dunbar (c1460-c1520)

1. Done is a battell on the dragon blak;
Our campioune Chryst coufoundit hes
his force: The yettis [gates] of hell ar
brokin with a crak, The signe
triumphall rasit is of the croce,
The divillis trymmillis with hiddous voce, The saulis ar borrowit and to the bliss can go, Chryst with his blud our ransonis dois indoe: Surrexit Dominus
de sepulchro.
[Christ has risen from the grave.]

2. Dungen is the deidly dragon Lucifer,
The crewall serpent
with the mortall stang,
The auld keen tegir
with his teith on char
Quhilk in a wait hes lyne for us so lang
Thinking to grip us
in his clowis strang:
he merciful lord
wald nocht that it wer so;
He maid him for to felye of that fang:
Surrexit Dominus de sepulchro.

3. He for our saik that sufferit to be slane
And lyk a lamb in sacrifice wes dight
Is like a lyone rissin up agane
And as a gyane raxit him on hicht;
Sprungin is Aurora radius and bricht,
On loft is gone the glorious Appollo,
The blissful day depairtit fro the nycht:
Surrexit Dominus de sepulchro.

NOTICES

Drinks will be served after Choral Evensong in the Old SCR, followed by Chapel Supper in the Harrison Room for those who have booked in.

There will be a VIGIL COMPLINE FOR THE CORONATION OF KING CHARLES III on Friday 5th May at 9:30pm, with beautiful music, candlelight, and a space to bring our hopes and fears for the new reign. The Coronation service from Westminster Abbey will be screened in college on Saturday 6th May with refreshments.

Sunday 7th May will feature a BIG BRUNCH to gather the college community together, including some choral surprises and an invitation to all comers to rehearse and 'Come and Sing' Hubert Parry's coronation anthem I Was Glad at Choral Evensong.

Please consider joining Arabella on her Wednesday Walks: half an hour of fresh air, wholesome chat, and the possibility of feeding some ducks, now known as Oscar and Lucinda. Meet at the Lodge at 12pm.

Theology Thursdays in D7 are now at 12pm! No pre-reading required, this term's theme will be poetry and spirituality, served with a sandwich lunch.

Save the date: Linocut Print Workshop. After the resounding success of this event last term, artist and printmaker Sarah Price will be offering another workshop on Saturday 20th May: £5 including a sandwich lunch and all materials.
