1 O sing unto the Lord a new song (--):
   sing unto the Lord all the whole earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord and praise his Name (--):
   be telling of his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour unto the heaven:
   and his wonders unto all people.

4 For the Lord is great and cannot worthily be praised (--):
   he is more to be feared than all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen they are but idols:
   but it is the Lord that made the heavens.

6 Glory and worship are before him:
   power and honour are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord O ye kindreds of the people:
   ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name (--):
   bring presents and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:
   let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

   Glory be to the Father and to the Son (--):
   and to the Holy Ghost.

   As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be:
   world without end. A-men.

INTROIT Let all mortal flesh keep silence music: Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)
words: from the Liturgy of St James (AD 60)

Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
   And stand with fear and trembling;
   And lift itself above all earthly thought
   For the King of kings and Lord of lords,
   Christ our God cometh forth to be our oblation,
   And to be given for food to the faithful.
   Before him come the choirs of angels
   With every principality and power,
   The cherubim with many eyes
   And winged seraphim, who veil their faces
   As they shout exultingly the hymn 'Alleluia'!
I will alway give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.

O praise the Lord with me: and let us magnify his Name together.

I sought the Lord and he heard me: yea he delivered me out of all my fear.

They had an eye unto him and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

Lo the poor crieth and the Lord heareth him: yea and saveth him out of all his troubles.

The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him: and delivereth them.

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O fear the Lord ye that are his saints: for they that fear him lack no thing.

The lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Come ye children and hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

Glory be the Father and to the Son: and to the Ho’ly Ghöst;

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: world without end A-mën.

ANTHEM Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High

Music: Benjamin Britten (1913-1976)
Words: Psalm 91

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say unto the LORD, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold; my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers; his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day; For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the ungodly. For thou, LORD, art my hope; thou hast set thine house of defence very high. There shall no evil happen unto thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands, that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him; yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.
