TUESDAY PSALM 96

1. O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the whole earth.
2. Sing unto the Lord, and praise his Name: be telling of his salvation from day to day.
3. Declare his honour unto the heathen: and his wonders unto all people.
4. For the Lord is great, and cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared than all gods.
5. As for all the gods of the heathen, they are but idols: but it is the Lord that made the heavens.
6. Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his sanctuary.
7. Ascribe unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people: ascribe unto the Lord worship and power.
8. Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name: bring presents, and come into his courts.
9. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.
10. Tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King: and that it is he who hath made the round world so fast that it cannot be moved; and how that he shall judge the people righteously.
11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.
12. Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord.
13. For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: and with righteousness to judge the world, and the people with his truth.

TUESDAY ANTHEM A Hymn for St Cecilia Music: Herbert Howells (1892-1983)
Words: Ursula Vaughan Williams (1911-2007)

Sing for the morning's joy, Cecilia, sing,
in words of youth and praises of the Spring,
walk the bright colonnades by fountains' spray,
and sing as sunlight fills the waking day;
till angels, voyaging in upper air,
pause on a wing and gather the clear sound
into celestial joy, wound and unwound,
a silver chain, or golden as your hair.

Sing for your loves of heaven and of earth,
in words of music, and each word a truth;
marriage of heart and longings that aspire,
a bond of roses, and a ring of fire.
Your summertime grows short and fades away,
terror must gather to a martyr's death;
but never tremble, the last indrawn breath
remembers music as an echo may.

Through the cold aftermath of centuries,
Cecilia's music dances in the skies;
lend us a fragment of the immortal air,
that with your choiring angels we may share,
a word to light us thro' time-fettered night,
water of life, or rose of paradise,
so from the earth another song shall rise
to meet your own in heaven's long delight.

THURSDAY PSALM 44: 1-9

1. We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us: what thou hast done in their time of old;
2. How thou hast driven out the heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations and cast them out.
3. For they gat not the land in possession through their own sword: neither was it their own arm that helped them;
4. But thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance: because thou hadst a favour unto them.
5. Thou art my King, O God: send help unto Jacob.
6. Through thee will we overthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them under, that rise up against us.
7. For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall help me;
8. But it is thou that savest us from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us.
9. We make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

THURSDAY ANTHEM Vox in Rama music: Giaches de Wert (1535 - 1596)
words: Matthew 2: 18

Vox in Rama audita est,
ploratus et ululatus multus.
Rachel plorans filios suos,
noluit consolari, quia non sunt.
