TUESDAY PSALM 119: 73-88

73. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: O give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.
74. They that fear thee will be glad when they see me: because I have put my trust in thy word.
75. I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right: and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.
76. O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort: according to thy word unto thy servant.
77. O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.
78. Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandments.
79. Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies: be turned unto me.
80. O let my heart be sound in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.
81. MY SOUL hath longed for thy salvation: and I have a good hope because of thy word.
82. Mine eyes long sore for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?
83. For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet do I not forget thy statutes.
84. How many are the days of thy servant: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me?
85. The proud have digged pits for me: which are not after thy law.
86. All thy commandments are true: they persecute me falsely; O be thou my help.
87. They had almost made an end of me upon earth: but I forsook not thy commandments.
88. O quicken me after thy loving-kindness: and so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth.

TUESDAY ANTHEM Brother James' Air
Music: Bain (1840-1925) arr. Sarah MacDonald
Words: Psalm 23

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie in pastures green,
He leadeth me the quiet waters by.

Yea though I walk in death's dark vale, yet I will fear no ill,
For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my days shall surely follow me,
And in God's house for ever more my dwelling place shall be,

My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness e'en for his own
Name's sake.

THURSDAY PSALM 16

1. Preserve me, O God: for in thee have I put my trust.
2. O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord: Thou art my God, my goods are nothing unto thee.
3. All my delight is upon the saints, that are in the earth: and upon such as excel in virtue.
4. But they that run after another god: shall have great trouble.
5. Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.
6. The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintain my lot.
7. The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground: yea, I have a goodly heritage.
8. I will thank the Lord for giving me warning: my reins also chasten me in the night-season.
9. I have set God always before me: for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.
10. Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoiced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.
11. For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell: neither shalt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.
12. Thou shalt shew me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

THURSDAY ANTHEM For the fallen music: Mark Blatchly (b.1960)
words: Lawrence Binyon (1869-1943)

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted;
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.
They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

NOTICES

On Friday 11th November, Morning Prayer will be joint with the Christian Union at 8am, followed by breakfast together. Armistice Day will also be marked in College with the two minutes' silence in Old Court at 11am.

Next Sunday's evening service will be a Service of Music and Reading for Remembrance. As we join together to remember all those who have died in conflict, this will include interfaith readings from members of college representing different religious communities. Followed as usual by Old SCR drinks and then chapel supper-please sign up for supper by Thursday 9am, Rebecca Wilson at chapel-administrator@sel.cam.ac.uk

You are warmly invited to join Selwyn Voices, half an hour of informal and non-auditioned singing, aiming to perform at the SCMS Christmas Concert at the end of term. No experience necessary, but enthusiasm greatly welcomed. Meetings are at 13.15-13.45 on Wednesdays, in the Chadwick Room.

Tunbridge Wells Grammar School Choir will give an informal lunchtime concert at 13:30 on Saturday 12th November, please do support them if you can.
