Miserere nostri, Domine  (sung by the choir)

words: BCP Litany

music: Thomas Tallis (c1505-1585)
(a seven-part canon)

Miserere nostri, Domine.
Have mercy upon us, O Lord.

THE GREETING

President  In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

All  Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

All  And also with you.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, since early days Christians have observed with great devotion
the time of our Lord’s passion and resurrection, and prepared for this by a season of penitence and fasting.
By carefully keeping these days,
Christians take to heart the call to repentance
and the assurance of forgiveness proclaimed in the gospel, and so grow in faith and in devotion to our Lord.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church,
to the observance of a holy Lent,
by self-examination and repentance;
by prayer, fasting, and self-denial;
and by reading and meditating on God’s holy word.

All  Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

COLLECT FOR ASH WEDNESDAY

Let us pray for grace to keep Lent faithfully:

Silence is kept.

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing that you have made, and forgive the sins of all those who are penitent: create and make in us new and contrite hearts that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may receive from you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

Please sit.
THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON (Joel 2:1-2, 12-17)

Blow the trumpet in Zion;
sound the alarm on my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near—
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness!
Like blackness spread upon the mountains
a great and powerful army comes;
their like has never been from of old,
nor will be again after them
in ages to come.

Yet even now, says the LORD,
return to me with all your heart,
with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;
rend your hearts and not your clothing.
Return to the LORD, your God,
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love,
and relents from punishing.
Who knows whether he will not turn and relent,
and leave a blessing behind him,
a grain-offering and a drink-offering for the LORD, your God?

Blow the trumpet in Zion;
sanctify a fast;
call a solemn assembly;
gather the people.
Sanctify the congregation;
assemble the aged;
gather the children,
even infants at the breast.
Let the bridegroom leave his room,
and the bride her canopy.
Between the vestibule and the altar
let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep.
Let them say, ‘Spare your people, O LORD,
and do not make your heritage a mockery,
a byword among the nations.
Why should it be said among the peoples,
“Where is their God?”

Reader  This is the Word of the Lord.
All  Thanks be to God.

Praise be to thee O Christ: King of eternal glory.

V. The Lord is a great God; * O that today you would listen to his voice: harden not your hearts.

REPEAT ACCLAMATION FULL

Please remain standing, and turn to face the gospeller.
GOSPEL (John 8:1-11)

Deacon    Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
All        Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them. The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them, they said to him, Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say? They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her. And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus straightened up and said to her, Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you? She said, No one, sir. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.’

Deacon    This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All        Praise to you, O Christ.

Please sit.

THE LITURGY OF PENITENCE
The deacon invites us to take part in a corporate examination of conscience:

Let us now call to mind our sin and the infinite mercy of God.

God the Father,
Have mercy upon us.

God the Son,
Have mercy upon us.

God the Holy Spirit,
Have mercy upon us.
Trinity of love,
Have mercy upon us.
Most merciful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
we confess that we have sinned in thought, word and deed.

We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.
Lord, have mercy.

We have ignored your call to serve, as Christ served us.
We have not been true to the mind of Christ.
We have grieved your Holy Spirit.
Lord, have mercy.

We confess to thee, Lord:
all our past unfaithfulness:
the pride, hypocrisy, and impatience of our lives,
Lord, have mercy.

Our self-indulgent appetites and ways,
and our exploitation of other people,
Lord, have mercy.

Our anger at our own frustration,
and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,
Lord, have mercy.
Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts,
and our dishonesty in daily life and work,
Lord, have mercy.

Our negligence in prayer and worship,
and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,
Lord, have mercy.

Accept our repentance, O Lord:

for the wrongs we have done:
for the times we have overlooked human need and suffering,
and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,
Accept our repentance, O Lord.

for all false judgments,
for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbours,
and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,
Accept our repentance, O Lord.

for our waste and pollution of thy creation,
and our lack of concern for those who come after us,
Accept our repentance, O Lord.

Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us;
Favourably hear us, for your mercy is great.

Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,
That we may show your glory in the world.

By the cross and passion of your Son our Lord,
Bring us with all your saints to the joy of his resurrection.

A period of silence is kept.

We have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God. Amen.

THE IMPOSITION OF ASHES

The President says:

As a sign of the spirit of penitence with which we shall keep this season of preparation for Easter, I invite you to receive on your head in ash the sign of the cross, the symbol of our salvation. God our Father, you create us from the dust of the earth: grant that these ashes may be for us a sign of our penitence and a symbol of our mortality; for it is by your grace alone that we receive eternal life in Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

All are invited to come forward to the altar rail to receive on their foreheads in ash the sign of the cross. The choir comes to the altar first. The minister uses these words:

Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.
Turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ.

During the imposition of Ashes, the choir sings Psalm 51:

MISERERE MEI, DEUS
music: Gregorio Allegri (1582-1652)

Miserére mei, Deus: secúndum magnam misericórdiam tuam.
Have mercy upon me, O God: after thy great goodness:
特别是 multitude of thy mercies: do away mine offences.
According to the multitude of thy mercies: do away mine offences.
Ámplius lava me ab iniquitáte mea: et a peccáto meo munda me.
Wash me throughly from my wickedness: and cleanse me from my sin.
Quóniam iniquitátem meam ego cognósco:
et peccátum meum contra me est semper.
For I acknowledge my faults: and my sin is ever before me.
Tibi soli peccávi, et malum coram te feci:
ut justificéris in sermónibus tuis, et vincas cum judicáris.
Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight:
that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.
Ecce enim in iniquitáibus concéptus sum: et in peccátis concépit me mater mea.
Behold, I was shapen in wickedness: and in sin hath my mother conceived me.
Ecce enim veritátem dilexiisti: incérta et occúlta sapiéntiæ tuæ manifestásti mihi.
But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts:
and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.
Aspérge me hyssópo, et mundábor: lavábis me, et super nivem dealbábor.
Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:
thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
Audítuí meo dabis gáudium et lætitiam: et exsultábunt ossa humiliáta.
   Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness:
   that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
Avérte fáciem tuam a peccátis meis: et omnes iniquitátes meas dele.
Turn thy face from my sins: and put out all my misdeeds.
Cor mundum crea in me, Deus: et spíritum rectum ínnova in viscéribus meis.
   Make me a clean heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.
Ne projícias me a fácie tua: et spíritum sanctum tuum ne áuferas a me.
   Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.
Redde mihi lætitiam salutáris tui: et spíritu principáli confírma me.
   O give me the comfort of thy help again: and establish me with thy free Spirit.
Docébo iníquos vias tuas: et ímpii ad te converténtur.
   Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked:
   and sinners shall be converted unto thee.
Líbera me de sangúinibus, Deus, Deus salútis meæ:
   Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health:
   and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.
Dómine, lábia mea apéries: et os meum annuntiábit laudem tuam.
   Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord: and my mouth shall shew thy praise.
Quóniam si voluísse sacrificium, dedíssem utique:
   For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee:
   but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.
Sacrificium Deo spíritus contribulátus:
   The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit:
   a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.
Benígne fac, Dómine, in bona voluntáte tua Sion: ut ædificéntur muri Jerúsalem.
   O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
Tunc acceptábis sacrificium justitiae, oblationes et holocáustas:
   Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

After the imposition of ashes, the President says the absolution:

The Lord enrich you with his grace, and nourish you with his blessing; the Lord defend you in trouble and keep you from all evil; the Lord accept your prayers, and absolve you from your offences, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.
THE LITURGY OF THE SACRAMENT

THE PEACE

Please stand. The President introduces the Peace:

Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
The peace of the Lord be always with you.

All And also with you.

OFFERTORY HYMN: 67 – Forty days and forty nights (tune: Aus der Tiefe)

music: AUS DER TIEFE; Nürnbergisches Gesangbuch 1676 words: G. H. Smyttan (1822-1870) & Francis Pott (1832-1909)
During the hymn, the table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it. The President takes the bread and wine with these words.

Risen Lord and Saviour, present among us with the wealth of your love;
Cleanse us from sin,
and give us the faith to offer our praise
and grow in your grace.
Amen.

THE PREFACE

President   The Lord be with you:
All         And also with you.

Lift up your hearts:
All         We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God:
All         It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy, at all times and in all places to give you thanks and praise, holy Father, heavenly King, almighty and eternal God, through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.

For in these forty days you lead us into the desert of repentance that through a pilgrimage of prayer and discipline we may grow in grace and learn to be your people once again.

Through fasting, prayer and acts of service you bring us back to your generous heart. Through study of your holy word you open our eyes to your presence in the world and free our hands to welcome others into the radiant splendour of your love.

As we prepare to celebrate the Easter feast with joyful hearts and minds we bless you for your mercy and join with saints and angels for ever praising you and singing:
SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS (sung by the choir)

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus,                     Holy, holy, holy, Dominus Deus Sabaoth,                         Lord God of hosts
pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua.         heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Hosanna in excelsis.                          Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.

Benedictus qui venit                           Blessed is he that cometh in nomine Domini.                              in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in excelsis.                          Hosanna in the highest.

Please sit or kneel.

THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

Accept our praises, heavenly Father, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, and as we follow his example and obey his command, grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit these gifts of bread and wine may be to us his body and his blood; who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks; he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks; he gave it to them, saying: Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Therefore, heavenly Father, we remember his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross; we proclaim his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; we look for the coming of your kingdom, and with this bread and this cup we make the memorial of Christ your Son our Lord.

Deacon        Jesus Christ is Lord.
All           Lord by your cross and resurrection,
you have set us free:
you are the Saviour of the world.

Accept through him, our great high priest, this our sacrifice of thanks and praise, and as we eat and drink these holy gifts in the presence of your divine majesty, renew us by your Holy Spirit, inspire us with your love, and unite us in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Through him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, Father almighty, in songs of everlasting praise:

All   Blessing and honour and glory and power be yours for ever and ever. Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Lord Jesus, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray:

    Our Father, who art in heaven,
    Hallowed be thy name.
    Thy kingdom come.
    Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
    Give us this day our daily bread,
    and forgive us our trespasses,
    as we forgive those who trespass against us.
    And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
    For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

AGNUS DEI

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.
miserere nobis.
dona nobis pacem.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

THE FRACTION

We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

All   Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.
THE GIVING OF COMMUNION

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

All Lord I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

To minimise the risk of Covid infection, communion will be offered in one kind (bread only). All Christians who have been baptised and who receive Holy Communion in their own churches, are welcome to do so here. Those who do not wish to receive communion, but who would like to receive a blessing, are welcome to come to the altar rail as well. Please bring this service sheet with you to indicate your intention.

During Communion the choir sings the Motet

MOTET Ave verum corpus words: Pope Innocent VI (d 1362)
music: William Byrd (1543-1623)

Ave, verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine: Hail the true body, born of the Virgin Mary:
dvere passum, immolatum vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine: You who truly suffered and were sacrificed cuius latus perforatum From whose pierced flank, fluxit aqua et sanguine: flowed water and blood:

esto nobis praegustatum, Be a foretaste for us in mortis examine. in the trial of death.

O Jesu dulcis, O Jesu pie, O sweet, O merciful, O Jesu Fili Mariae. O Jesus, Son of Mary.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us both a sacrifice for sin and also an example of godly life. Give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive these his inestimable gifts, and also daily endeavour to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand.
FINAL HYMN (NEH 70)

1 Lord Jesus, think on me And purge away my sin; From earthborn passions set me free And make me pure within.

2 Lord Jesus, think on me With many a care opprest; Let me Thy loving servant be And taste Thy promised rest.

3 Lord Jesus, think on me Amid the battle’s strife; In all my pain and misery Be thou my health and life.

4 Lord Jesus, think on me Nor let me go astray; Through darkness and perplexity Point thou the heavenly way.

5 Lord Jesus, think on me When flows the tempest high; When on doth rush the enemy, O Saviour, be Thou nigh!

6 Lord Jesus, think on me That, when the flood is past, I may the eternal brightness see And share thy joy at last.
