INTROIT O remember not
music: Henry Purcell 1659-1695
words: from the BCP

O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us,
and that soon, for we are come to great misery.

PSALM 18:1-19

I WILL love thee, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stony rock, and my defence : my saviour, my God, and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my salvation, and my refuge.

2. I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised : so shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3. The sorrows of death compassed me : and the overflowings of ungodliness made me afraid.

4. The pains of hell came about me : the snares of death overtook me.

5. In my trouble I will call upon the Lord : and complain unto my God.

6. So shall he hear my voice out of his holy temple : and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter even into his ears.

7. The earth trembled and quaked : the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed, because he was wroth.

8. There went a smoke out in his presence : and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coals were kindled at it.

9. He bowed the heavens also, and came down : and it was dark under his feet.

10. He rode upon the cherubins, and did fly : he came flying upon the wings of the wind.

11. He made darkness his secret place : his pavilion round about him, with dark water and thick clouds to cover him.

12. At the brightness of his presence his clouds removed : hail-stones, and coals of fire.

13. The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest gave his thunder : hail-stones, and coals of fire.

14. He sent out his arrows, and scattered them : he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15. The springs of water were seen, and the foundations of the round world were discovered, at thy chiding, O Lord : at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16. He shall send down from on high to fetch me : and shall take me out of many waters.

17. He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me : for they are too mighty for me.

18. They prevented me in the day of my trouble : but the Lord was my upholder.

19. He brought me forth also into a place of liberty : he brought me forth, even because he had a favour unto me.

ANTHEM Thou knowest Lord

Music: Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

Words: Book of Common Prayer

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts. Shut not thy merciful ears unto our prayers; but spare us, Lord most holy. O God most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, thou most worthy judge eternal, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee. Amen.
