LIKE as the hart desireth the water-brooks: so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

2. My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God: when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

3. My tears have been my meat day and night: while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

4. Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God;

5. In the voice of praise and thanksgiving: among such as keep holy-day.

6. Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7. Put thy trust in God: for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

8. My God, my soul is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9. One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes: all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

10. The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time: and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

11. I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me: why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

12. My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword: while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth;

13. Namely, while they say daily unto me: Where is now thy God?

14. Why art thou so vexed, O my soul: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15. O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

TUESDAY ANTHEM Save us, O Lord, waking music: Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)
words: Anonymous

Save us, O Lord, waking,
Guard us sleeping,
That awake we may watch with Christ,
And asleep we may rest in peace. Amen.
THURSDAY PSALM 141

LORD, I call upon thee, haste thee unto me: and consider my voice when I cry unto thee.
2. Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense: and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.
3. Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth: and keep the door of my lips.
4. O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing: let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, lest I eat of such things as please them.
5. Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.
6. But let not their precious balms break my head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.
7. Let their judges be overthrown in stony places: that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.
8. Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh and heweth wood upon the earth.
9. But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soul.
10. Keep me from the snare that they have laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.
11. Let the ungodly fall into their own nets together: and let me ever escape them.

THURSDAY ANTHEM

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee.
The darkness is no darkness with Thee, but the night is as clear as the day.
The darkness and the light to Thee are both alike.
God is light and with Him is no darkness at all.
Oh let my soul live and it shall praise Thee.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory, for evermore.
